

Fanno Creek Regional Trail

Imagine Tigard

"The most walkable community in the Pacific Northwest where people of all ages and abilities enjoy healthy and interconnected lives."

Walkability is the key to Tigard's future. The city has adopted a strategic vision that builds on our many beautiful parks, trails and natural spaces. It's a vision that recognizes that community is made of healthy connections between people and places.

Downtown Tigard is rich in this regard, hosting access to trails, public transit and destination businesses. The Fanno Creek Regional Trail travels through Tigard on its way from Portland to Tualatin, connecting with many local trails along the way. The City of Tigard is filling in the gaps.

Our goal is for every resident to have safe and convenient walking access to this magnificent trail system.

We're heading down a new path in Tigard and we're happy you're here.

Welcome to Tigard. Roll here. Stroll here. Enjoy.

City of Tigard

Historic Main Street

In 1910, the arrival of the Oregon Electric Railway triggered the development of Main Street. Today, Main Street is Tigard's most walkable commercial area with unique shops and restaurants.
